

Monterey Bay Aquarium Seafood Watch Food Truck Serves Up Ocean-Friendly Fare at Bay Area Summer Events

Eat. Drink. Save the Ocean. The Monterey Bay Aquarium Seafood Watch Food Truck rolls into San Francisco Bay area events July through September 2019 to raise awareness about ocean-friendly seafood and choices people can make. Hungry event-goers can satisfy their appetites with a Seafood Watch Best Choice fish or vegan bite while also finding out how to shop with the ocean in mind. Visit the aquarium's website for the food truck's whereabouts and ocean conservation tips.

The Monterey Bay Aquarium Seafood Watch Food Truck menu, created with San Francisco favorite Little Green Cyclo, features three items made with either U.S. West Coast rockfish or vegan ingredients:

- Menu items: Taco, Lettuce Wrap or Bánh Mi Sandwich
- Fish preparation options: Chili Lime, Tamarind or Cajun-style
- Vegan option: Butternut Squash with Kale and Candied Walnuts

Monterey Bay Aquarium brings its Seafood Watch Food Truck to the Bay Area this summer to help people better understand the importance of buying Best Choice, green-rated seafood. Along with tasty eats, the Food Truck offers information demonstrating how Seafood Watch resources combined with individual voices can protect the ocean.

Since 1999, the Monterey Bay Aquarium Seafood Watch program has developed thousands of seafood recommendations and has been collaborating with chefs, seafood businesses and governments around the world. Seafood Watch has grown from its origins as a consumer-facing pocket guide to become the leading global standard for science-based seafood recommendations.

Monterey Bay Aquarium cooked up the food truck concept with San Francisco-based agency Hub Strategy & Communication.
